Well of Joy

Well of Joy

Isa.12:1-3 – In that day you will say: "I will praise you, Lord. Although you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you have comforted me. ² Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, he Lord himself, is my strength and my defense; he has become my salvation." ³ With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. {NIV}

Brethren, happy new month and welcome to the month of June. This is a covenant month in which God is set to restore drying bones with abundance of joy.

Salvation is a well filled with many blessings, and one of the key contents is JOY.

A dictionary might define "joy" as a state of happiness in response to external circumstances. But our kind of joy is one that rests in the knowledge of what God has done and will continue to do. Our kind of joy is not dependent on what is happening in the world; it is a commitment to see good and recognize the presence of good in the world and in ourselves, regardless of our circumstances. Joy is the product of our ever-present knowledge of God's movement and work in our lives.

This joy transcends external circumstances and is crucial, especially amidst global turmoil and poverty even in affluent nations. While acknowledging the world's suffering, it is essential not to succumb to despair; joy serves as a vital remedy. Proverbs 17:22 (ESV) highlights that a joyful heart is beneficial, while a crushed spirit can lead to despair. For believers, joy functions as a spiritual resource, empowering them to fulfill their purpose. Unlike a fleeting happiness based on circumstances, this joy is rooted in understanding God's past and ongoing works, encouraging positivity and acknowledgment of goodness. Even through trials, believers are called to maintain joy, which fosters a connection to God and creates an environment for blessings. Choosing joy daily involves intentionally setting aside time for acts that promote contentment, peace, and closeness to God, emphasizing that joy is both a source of strength and a pathway to deeper divine connection.

In June, rivers of joy await you!!!

Shalom
